1865

COUNTY SEAT: YAKIMA

Named for the Yakama Indian people

Traditional home of bands and tribes now associated with the Yakama Indian Nation

Yakima County ranges from the densely timbered Cascade Mountains to fertile farming valleys and arid sagebrush hills. Although prime grazing land drew cattlemen to the area in the 1860s, it was the development of irrigation in the early 1900s that brought orchards, hops and prosperity to Yakima County. The Yakama Reservation in the southwest part of the county is home to the 14 Confederated Tribes and Bands of the Yakama Indian Nation.
