Re: Reapplication for the Project Review Committee (PRC) – Specialty/Subcontractor Seat

To the CPARB Committee,

Please consider this reapplication letter for the PRC Specialty Contractor representative. As I have been on the PRC for the past eight years, I meet all the requirements as outline in your 2023 PRC Recruitment letter. With great passion to the duties associated with this position, I am an advocate of the public GC/CM and DB contracting procedures as outlined in the RCW 39.10. This allows me to collaborate with like-minded individuals to promote these delivery methods for its best intended use for our citizens of the State of Washington.

- Third most tenured member of the current PRC Panel. Member for the past eight (8) years.
- 18+ years employed as a senior manager for one of the NW’s largest electrical contractors.
- 40+ years of construction experience on alternative delivery.
- PRC leadership and contributions to alternative procurement.
 - ✓ Chair, the PRC Onboarding & Mentoring Development Committee. Developed the process and procedures for the new PRC Mentor/Mentee Program.
 - ✓ Member, the M/ECCM Review Committee (CPARB) to develop ‘best practice’ recommendations in improving the RCW 39.10.385 language.
 - ✓ Practitioner Industry Partner-Specialty, Design-Build Institute of America (DBIA) and the DBIANW Chapter, 2004 - Present.
 - ✓ Board Member, AGC Education Foundation Board of Trustees, 2005 - Present.
 - ✓ Certification, the AGC Education Foundation. Two-day training certification for the General Contractor/Construction Manager Workshop.
