Washington EDGE

Encouraging Diversity,
Growth, and Equity

Washington EDGE is a pilot program designed to remove barriers for small businesses in Washington state public works contracting, many of which are diverse, veteran- or women-owned.

This program gives eligible small businesses access to special training, technical help, and opportunities to bid on Washington EDGE reserved contracts.

Washington EDGE Key Components

- ✓ Required DES Washington EDGE training program
- ✓ Hands-on technical experience and assistance for navigating the Washington bidding rules and process
- ✓ Connection with experienced firms and industry professionals
- ✓ Program participants will receive access to Washington EDGE program reserved bidding opportunities, therefore bidding against like-sized businesses on a more level field
