Purpose:

This rule making order repeals chapter 200-370 WAC.

Under HB 2452 (2012), commonly known as Procurement Reform, RCW 43.19.185 was repealed. The former RCW 43.19.185 mandated rules relating to the use and control of credit cards by state agencies and departments.

While credit card policies and standards are still required for purchases under chapter 39.26 RCW, credit card rules are not. Rules under the former RCW 43.19.195 were first adopted in 1986. At that point in time, government use of credit/debit/purchasing cards was emerging into mainstream payment methodologies. Since then, the credit/debit/purchasing card landscape has matured and is accepted as a standard payment practice. Fully developed and operational credit card systems, controls and policies are in place across state agencies and followed by state agencies. Further, the former GA and OFM worked together and put in place fully developed policies and procedures under chapter 45 of the State Administrative and Accounting Manual.

Based on the preceding, rules are no longer relevant and in some cases the current rules create inefficiencies. Because of this, DES is repealing the rules.
